- Today is the 17th Sunday after Pentecost.
- The color of the season after Pentecost is green.
- Even though money can be green, in Pentecost we learn that money isn't what makes us rich.
Headed Up!

Help the squirrel climb this tree by answering each quiz question below. Each time you answer a question right, the squirrel can move up to the next branch.

1) During what holiday do some people bring a tree inside their home?

2) Name four animals that live in trees.

3) A cactus is a kind of tree. True or false?

4) Name the national park in California that has REALLY tall trees. Trees in this park can reach up to 379 feet!

4.   3.

2.   1.

Answers: 1) Christmas, 2) Answers might include monkeys, birds, insects, squirrels, frogs, koalas, snakes, 3) False, cacti are in the plant family, 4) Redwood National Park

In his parables, Jesus used some pretty confusing examples. Our faith is like a mustard seed? Jesus described what the kingdom of God is like in all kinds of ways. Sometimes he used similes. A simile is a way of describing something like something else. Look up these verses and draw each metaphor below:

The kingdom of God is like...

Matthew 13:44

Matthew 13:47-50

Matthew 13:33

The letters in today's memory verse have increased! Can you still read what it says?

Growing Big

Just like a mustard seed grows, and just like our faith grows, these things grow, too. Draw the "big version" of all of these things.
